Call letters to the provisionally eligible candidates have already been sent through post at the address given by the candidates in the application form. Railway will not be responsible for any postal delay or wrong delivery.

Candidates can also download the call letter from the only authorised website of RRB/Ranchi www.rrbbranchi.org. However, they must properly check their bio-data such as name, Father name, Date of Birth, address and photograph. Candidates should check their application status first and only those candidates will be able to download the call letter whose application is accepted and who have been allotted Roll Nos. Application status is available on RRB website for all the candidates of CEN No.04/2010 and EN No.NTPC/ER/01/2008. However, downloading of call letter will start w.e.f. 10/8/2013 for the candidates having examination on 01/9/2013 and w.e.f. 07/9/2013 for candidates having examination on 22/9/2013. Free travel authority will not be available in the case of downloaded Duplicate call letters. Downloaded duplicate call letter from the website will be valid for written examination only.

Rejection advice to the applicants against the post notified through CEN No. 04/2010 whose applications were rejected were also sent to the candidates in the month of May-2011. But the Rejection advice was not sent to the applicants of EN No.NTPC/ER/1/2008 since they were given an opportunity to submit fresh application against CEN No. 04/2010 if their application status uploaded in RRB/Ranchi website showed REJECTED.

The provisionally eligible candidates who do not get call letters or who have been issued call letter with wrong names, community, photograph and free travel authority (for SC/ST) and Candidates who are not able to download the call letter from the website of RRB/Ranchi despite being eligible may contact personally the office of Railway Recruitment Board, Ranchi along with attested copies of Date Of Birth certificate, two passport size recent colour photographs and caste certificate, if applicable as per the following programme for getting correct/Duplicate call letters:
