Director (OBC)

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE & EMPOWERMENT

Central Sector Scheme of National Overseas Scholarship for OBC candidates

Regulations governing the Central Sector Scheme of National Overseas Scholarship for OBC candidates

The Scheme

The Scheme provides financial assistance to the finally selected candidates for pursuing Master level courses and Ph.D abroad in the following specified fields of study:-

- a) Engineering;
- b) Management;
- c) Agricultural Science; and
- d) Medicine.

Twenty five awards per year are available under the Scheme with following distribution:

Discipline wise:

	Fields of study	No. of seats each year
a)	Engineering	7
b)	Management	6
c)	Agricultural Science	6
d)	Medicine	6
	Total	25

The Scheme may be reviewed to increase the slots, if required.

As the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment endeavours to encourage women candidates, 30% of the awards for each year shall be earmarked for women candidates. However, in case adequate women candidates are not found available as per the stipulations of the Scheme by the Selection Committee, the unutilized slots will be utilized by selecting suitable male candidates.

I. MINIMUM QUALIFICATION

For Ph.D. - First class or 60(sixty)% marks or equivalent grade in relevant Masters' Degree. Preference would be given to the experienced candidates, especially to those who hold lien with their existing post and employer.

For Masters' Degree: - First Class or 60(sixty)% marks or equivalent grade in relevant Bachelors' Degree. Preference would be given to the experienced candidates, especially to those who hold lien with their existing post and employer.

II. AGE

Below 35(Thirty Five) years, as on First day of the month of the Advertisement of the Scheme.

III. INCOME CEILING

Total family income from all sources of the employed candidate or his/her parents/guardians, shall not exceed Rs.3,00,000/-(Rupees three lakh only) per annum (excluding such allowances as are not treated as part of total income for the purpose of income tax) as certified by the employer. A copy of latest tax-assessment as well as latest monthly salary slip from the employer is also required to be enclosed with the application.

IV. MAXIMUM NUMBER OF CHILDREN IN A FAMILY FOR THE AWARD

Not more than one child of the same parents/guardians will be eligible for award of this scholarship and to this effect a self-certification will be required from the candidate. The awardee cannot be considered for the award for second or subsequent times as one individual can be awarded for once. The award can be given only once.

V. OTHER MANDATORY CONDITIONS

- i. Candidates who are employed, must forward their applications through their employer along with a 'No Objection Certificate' (NOC) by the employer to this Ministry so as to reach the Ministry on or before the last date of receipt of applications as specified in the advertisement of the Scheme.
- ii. The prospective awardee will be selected by the Selection Committee constituted by this Ministry for a particular subject from within the specified subjects for pursuing Masters' Programme or Ph.D.
- iii. The award of this scholarship is valid for one year from the date of communication of selection, i.e. the candidate, if selected, shall be required to obtain admission in, and join any of the notified university/institute within one year. Failing this, the award would get automatically cancelled. No request for extension of time shall be allowed.
- iv. The candidates are required to make their own efforts in seeking admission in any of the notified Universities/institutions in programmes/fields specified in the Scheme. However, approval of Government of India for acceptance of the university/institute for admission will be required.
- v. The candidate who has already taken admission in foreign University/Institution will be given preference. Other candidates will have to ensure that they get admission in the foreign University/Institution within a period of one year from the date of letter communicating award of scholarship to him/her.
- vi. In case there is a tie between two or more candidates, the candidate senior in age (as per the date of birth mentioned in the matriculation/secondary school certificate) will be given preference.
- vii. The candidate will not change the course of study or research for which scholarship has been sanctioned.
- viii. The selected candidate is required to execute a bond on a non-judicial stamp paper before a notary-public with two sureties who will execute surety bonds separately for the actual amount to be spent by Government of India on the candidate or Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand) whichever is more. Each of the surety bond shall specify and cover for the estimated expenditure in Indian Rupees that would be incurred as travel expenses, fees, maintenance and contingency allowances, stipends, scholarship and other miscellaneous expenses, on the awardee during the entire period of study abroad and shall become payable by the sureties jointly or/and severally in case the awardee is declared a defaulter by the Ministry under the provisions of the Scheme. The language of the bond as decided by the Government of India will be acceptable to the candidate.

- ix. The selected candidate will also be required to execute a bond with this Ministry and the Indian Mission abroad, as per prevailing laws of the foreign country, that the extension of stay abroad beyond completion of the course or duration of the scholarship under the Scheme, whichever is earlier will not be permissible.
- x. The candidate will have to execute another bond with this Ministry and the Indian Mission abroad, for which he/she will sign a Record Release Consent Form in the manner prescribed by Government of India and it will be acceptable to the candidate.
- xi. In case a married candidate takes a decision to take his/her spouse and children with them or join them subsequently during the period of study, it is entirely for them to assess their financial potential and availability of passport, visa etc., as no financial assistance of any kind as well as any other support coverage is provided under the Scheme for the spouse and children.
- xii. All administrative matters like study leave, salary etc. will be directly sorted out by the candidate with his/her employer and as per rules of the serving organization. This Ministry will not take any responsibility or render assistance in this regard.
- xiii. In case of exigency at home where the awardee is required to return to India for attending to it, the awardee is permitted to return to India for the specific purpose, after having informed the Indian Missions and the educational institution where one is pursuing studies about it. The awardee will, however, be required to bear to and fro journey expenses for the visit and shall also not be entitled to receive maintenance allowance under the scheme, from the Indian Mission, for the period of being away from the place of his/her educational institution abroad and the maintenance allowance shall be resumed by the Indian Mission only from the date of his/her resuming same course at the same institution. The awardee after having dealt with the situation at home, is required to return to the place of his/her educational institution, as early as possible; failing which, he/she shall be liable to be declared a defaulter and recovery proceedings will be initiated against him/her.

- xiv. All candidates after having availed of the award under the Scheme are ordinarily required to return to India. However, permission for staying for one year after completion of the course may be considered, for reasons to be recorded in writing, without any financial support. The decision would rest with the Government of India. The awardee after having returned to India is also required to immediately intimate to this Ministry in writing about having returned to India.
- xv. The awardee on return to India must remain in India for at least five years and also required to serve the Government, if he/she continues to be in Government service after return to India, as one was before going abroad with award under the Scheme.
- xvi. It will be for the candidate to obtain the appropriate visa for a country wherein one intends to study further under award from the Scheme and the Visa issuing authorities may kindly see that only such type of visa be issued which only permits the candidate to pursue specified course abroad and thereafter the candidate returns to India. Government of India will render no assistance to a candidate for obtaining Visa.
- xvii. Selected candidates are required to furnish all such documents and enter into such agreements before their departure, as shall be decided by the Government of India from time to time.
- xviii. In case the awardee has received over payment through Indian Mission abroad or any other Government agency, he/she is liable to refund the same to Government of India and his/her employer (if any) is authorized to recover the excess amount from his/her dues, on request from Government of India, and refund the same to Government of India.
- xix. The decision of the Government of India will be final in all such issues, as may come up during course of time.
- xx. The Indian Missions abroad will obtain six monthly progress reports from the university/ institution where the awardee is pursuing his/her studies for which the award was given under the Scheme. The Missions will inform this Ministry such adverse developments in case of the awardee which requires decision towards further continuation of the award or otherwise. The Missions will, however, keep on advising such awardees to put serious efforts in improving their achievements, who are not seen to be up to the mark as reflected in their said six monthly progress reports and they may also be reminded that financial assistance under the Scheme is not extendable beyond the stipulated period under the Scheme.

- xxi. The candidates shall not change the course of study or research for which scholarship has been sanctioned. However, there may arise situations when an awardee pursuing Ph.D. in a university/ institution where one is initially registered with, finds a serious situation where his/her guide has left and there is no immediate replacement thereof or the university/ institution has discontinued the research support facilities in the area where the awardee was pursuing Ph.D. research; the Indian Missions abroad in such cases are authorized to allow the awardee to change the university/ institution, after the Missions are satisfied about such a need, however, subject to the condition that the credits, if any, earned by the awardee in the initial university/ institution are accepted for transfer by the second university/ institution and that the total period of award will remain unchanged even on such a transfer/change, which will be permitted only once during the whole period of award.
- xxii. The candidate before going abroad to pursue the course for which he was selected under the Scheme, is required to give a declaration to this Ministry that he/she has not already acquired the qualification in the meanwhile or has not submitted the final thesis leading to his/her acquiring the requisite qualification from any of Indian university. This Ministry on receiving such a declaration from the candidate will appropriately decide as to whether candidate can be awarded scholarship under the Scheme or otherwise and departure of the candidate for abroad will depend on the decision.
- xxiii. In case the awardee is unable to complete the course successfully and that if the guide/head of the department of the candidate certifies that the candidate has not been found wanting in his/her commitment/dedication/attention to studies then the Ministry shall have the right to exempt him/her from the penalty clause of Defaulter under the Scheme. The Indian Missions in all such cases will provide the return air passage to India by shortest route and economy class.
- xxiv. When the awardee overstays abroad for more than one month after successful completion of the course and then of his/her own returns to India at own cost, he/she will not be entitled to reimbursement of return passage booked by him/her. In normal circumstances, immediately after successful completion of the course, the Indian Missions abroad books the return journey, for the awardee as provided in the Scheme, and thus, the overstaying awardee without any specific purpose for more than a month after the course is over, will forfeit his/her claims of return passage at Government expense through Indian Missions abroad.

- xxv. The Indian Missions are required to intimate to this Ministry about the return of the awardee to India.
- xxvi. This Ministry, if necessary, in consultation with other Departments/ Agencies, will take decision on such issues concerning awardees arising out of such situations and circumstances which are of unforeseeable nature and, thus, not covered under this written Scheme and the decisions of the Ministry will be final and binding on the awardees.
